Hey dude.

"I had 4 action packed days away with active adventures and had an absolute ball. Whether we were volcano trekking, scuba diving or smashing forehands on the tennis court no day was the same. The highlight for me was hitting the gorgeous Famara beach where we surfed all afternoon. The beach is that big that you are guaranteed un-interrupted surfing and some pretty decent waves. This was further supported by a wealth of local coaching/expertise through many of the activities, a gorgeous hotel and some quality fun out on the social in the evenings. If you wanna live it like you love it then I suggest you go play with these boys!"

Take care and live it like you love it!
